Dear Anthony :

On July 19, 1999, we requested from Roy Smith Company an urgent delivery of CO<sub>2</sub> and Hydrogen gas. You quickly and efficiently filled our order that same day despite the short notice of our need.

This letter was written to acknowledge your and your company's expeditious response in satisfying our needs. Your quick response was greatly appreciated by all of us involved in the project.

Your company's technical support and your continued frequent communication with me exemplify the high level of service to which Roy Smith Company is committed.

Thank you for your great effort in helping us. I look forward to sharing future projects with you.

Sincerely,
